This is the e-Bulletin from the Livermore-Amador Genealogical Society (L-AGS), provided monthly to our members. If you would prefer not to receive this e-Bulletin or other information, please send a message to <mailto:membership@L-AGS.org> and your address will be removed from our distribution list.

If you have a special genealogy or local history event or announcement you would like to see included, please submit via email to:

<mailto:bulletin.manager@L-AGS.org>.

Note: In the banner above is a photo of a statue from the Pleasanton Library called, "Girl Reading." This has a very special connection to L-AGS as it is there in memory of L-AGS member, Judy Person's daughter, Sarah Anne Lees (named after her 4th great-grandmother). It was sculpted by a Utah sculptor named Dennis Smith, as is the similar one of the girl reading to a boy.

Board Meeting Summary for June 23, 2020

The Board met via Zoom. Program Chair Tom Mathews presented the schedule for speakers for the rest of 2020. General Meetings will be conducted through Zoom for the foreseeable future – this allows for some presenters from outside our immediate area. The speaker schedule is as follows:

July 13 – The Records that Tragedy Leave Behind – by Gena Ortega-Philibert

August 10 – Sanborn Maps – by Jeanette Sheliga

September 14 – Canadian Genealogical Research – by Stephanie West

October 12 – What Became of Aaron Case – by Susan Goss Johnston

July 2020

November 9 – Researching Your Mayflower Ancestors – by Bob Trapp

December 14 – West Coast Immigration in the 20th Century – by Linda Harms Okazaki

The DNA class with Mark McLaren was also successfully rescheduled and is being presented through Zoom. The class is full.

It is possible to do family research on-line through the Pleasanton and Livermore Libraries, since the libraries are closed.

LIVERMORE FAMILY HISTORY CENTER

Is closed

Several L-AGS members, both LDS and non-LDS, volunteer as docents at the Livermore FHC. They are available to assist you in your genealogy research. The Mocho Street FSC is open Mondays 1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m., Wednesday and Thursday evenings 6 p.m. – 9 p.m. and Saturday 1 p.m. – 4 p.m. For further information please contact the center at (925) 443-2750 during these hours. L-AGS is not affiliated with the Mormon (LDS) Church. L-AGS does however partner with the Livermore LDS Family History Center (FHC) for various non-denominational genealogical events such as educational seminars, guest speakers, indexing projects and special interest groups. LDS facilities at their 950 Mocho Street, Livermore complex are often used for these. Note: The entrance is in the front of the building on the right—there is a sign on the door. If the parking in front of the building is full, there is a large parking lot in the rear of the building.

PLEASANTON GENEALOGY CENTER IS CLOSED

A L-AGS docent is available at the Pleasanton City Library by appointment, e-mail: <mailto:docents.chair@L-AGS.org>. The library is located at 400 Old Bernal Avenue in Pleasanton. The Pleasanton Genealogy Center, jointly supported by L-AGS, the Friends of the Pleasanton Library, and the Pleasanton Public Library, contains the largest collection of genealogy books, CDs and online databases in the Tri-Valley. Over 100 of the genealogy volumes may be checked out. Obtain information at the reference desk. The L-AGS genealogy reference book collection of 1,000 volumes resides in the Genealogy Section of the Pleasanton City Library. The L-AGS and the Friends of the Pleasanton Library provide access to the following subscription genealogy databases:

- Ancestry.com
- AmericanAncestors.org (formerly New England Historic Genealogical Society (NEHGS))
- Heritage Quest (in Library & at home)

LIVERMORE ROOTS TRACER NEWS

We are actively seeking articles and photos for the Roots Tracer. Some items we are looking for are short, entertaining updates about your current genealogy activities. Who are you researching? In what locations? What time period? What other genealogy related activities are you pursuing? Are you travelling? Indexing? Writing? Speaking? Instructing? Volunteering? Let us know. Please submit all articles, updates and columns to <mailto:rootstracer.chair@L-AGS.org>.

We welcome articles the following subject matter:

- Updated, previously published Livermore Roots Tracer articles
- Your Famous and Not So Famous Ancestors
- Overcoming Brick Walls
- Traveling to Find Your Roots
- Old House & Building Histories
- Family Heirlooms
- Technology Related Articles
- Book Reviews, Poems, and Photographs

Submitting Your Article

You can easily submit your article as an email attachment to L-AGS editor at <mailto:rootstracer.chair@L-AGS.org>. Articles should be saved in either

Microsoft Word (.doc or .docx) or Rich Text format. Use footnotes to cite sources for facts that are not general knowledge. No need to worry about knowing how to cite history sources, our editors can assist you with this task. Photographs should also be emailed as separate files and labeled. Please include possible captions for each item. Photographs, when scanned, should be in either .jpg or .tif format.

Finally, feel free to provide a headshot and short bio (50-60 words) about yourself with an email address. Your headshot and bio will be placed at the end of your article so that members, readers, and unknown relatives can easily contact you.

Author's Rights

By submitting an article for publication in the Livermore Roots Tracer, you agree to grant the Livermore-Amador Genealogical Society one-time print publication rights, and the right to publish the article on its website in the Roots Tracer Archive. All other rights not expressly granted in this agreement are fully reserved by you. In addition, you acknowledge that you are the original author and are free to grant publication rights and that your article does not contain material that is consciously libelous or defamatory. Please feel free to contact L-AGS editor via email <mailto:rootstracer.chair@L-AGS.org> to discuss your article ideas or to answer any questions you may have.

PRESIDENT MESSAGE

If there is a couple of positives to come out of this whole Covid 19 trial we are all under, we have been able to schedule a lot of speakers who are coming from quite a distance away. Gena Philibert-Ortega our July speaker, is coming to us from SoCal. Our August speaker is speaking to us from Upstate NY. Stephanie West from Lodi and Susan Goss Johnston from New Mexico.

I certainly hope that more of you will be able to participate in our Zoom meetings. We will be sending out a YouTube video on how to join a Zoom meeting. For anyone that isn't sure how to do it, you might look at that first.

For anyone that has a Livermore or Pleasanton Library card, you can now access Ancestry Library ed. from home. I have not found that to be the case for the Dublin library or the Contra Costa Libraries. I understand that this will be the case during our shelter-in-place.

Anne Homan has written a book about her life experiences. If anyone would be interested in obtaining a copy, contact Anne at 925-443-9440. The cost of the book is $20.00. Our reviewer, Richard Finn, said it was very interesting.
