Interviewing Your Relatives

Lectures:

Organizations such as the California Genealogical Society, San Mateo County G. S., Livermore-Amador G.S., San Francisco Historical Society's History Day, Chinese American Family History Conference, U.C. Berkeley, San Francisco State University, Association of Asian American Studies, programs at Angel Island State Park, Locke Foundation, and numerous other organizations.

Publications:

Written extensive articles on the Immigrant Voices website of the Angel Island Immigration Station Foundation (www.aiisf.org/immigrantvoices). These are detailed stories combining historical documents and often interviews with immigrants and their descendants. Grant has been published in the Amerasia Journal, Nichi Bei Times, The Repeal and Its Legacy: Proceedings of the Conference on the 50th Anniversary of the Repeal of the Exclusion Acts, and Echoes from Gold Mountain on non-genealogical topics.

Affiliations:

Besides APG, his memberships include the National Genealogical society and the California Genealogical Society. He serves as board treasurer for Mu Films, which has made films about Korean adoptee experience, and a member of the board of the Marcus Foster Educational Fund in Oakland, CA.

Bring your friends to our meeting and then visit Angel Island. You will see it with "new eyes" and experience the echoes of their stories.
