Published Book, "History of Dublin"

Once upon a time a bored little kid sat up in the back seat when the car stopped. "Where are we," he asked. "It's the place where the prisoners of war lived," answered his mom, the driver. Now this little boy lives in Dublin, California, the same location as the Santa Rita Prison. Steve has written a little history of this crossroads. It includes native Americans, Spanish colonialists, immigrants to America, gold prospectors, land barons, crusading Depression-era social reformer, sailors, Air Force recruits, suburbanites and more.
